AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY.

John Bunyan. The celebrated author of the Pilgrim's Progress was born in 1628, at Elstow, a small village near Bedford, in England. His father was a tinker, and brought up his son to the same business. He was baptized in 1655, at the age of twenty-seven years, and within a year was set apart by fasting and prayer to the ministerial office. On the 12th of November, 1660, he was convicted of the offence of not conforming to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England, and committed, with sixty others, to the county jail. He remained in Bedford jail more than 12 years, and was released in 1672. He learned to make tagged thread laces, and by this employment provided for his family. In the midst of all his trials, he wrote the Pilgrim's Progress. He died in a triumphant manner, August 31, 1688, aged sixty years.

The prison was pulled down in 1765; the view was taken in 1761. The first edition of the Pilgrim's Progress was published in 1678. In 1684 Bunyan published the second part of his Pilgrim's Progress. More than one hundred thousand copies of the Pilgrim's Progress were published during the author's life. There were also translations made into French, Flemish, Dutch, Welsh, Gaelic, and Irish. It has also been translated into Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Danish, Latin, German, Hebrew, Esthonian, Armenian, Burmese, Singhalese, Oriya, Hindustanee, Bengalee, Tamil, Marathi, Canarese, Gujarati, Malay, Arabic, Samoan, Tahitian, Sichuana, Malagasy, New Zealand. The London Religious Tract Society has aided to print the Pilgrim's Progress in 23 languages. It has been translated into 31 languages.

How wonderful is the Providence of God. The enemies of religion rejoiced in the imprisonment of Bunyan, but while thus debarred from preaching the gospel he wrote the book which makes known the glad tidings of salvation—the way of escape from the city of Destruction—the pilgrim's path to heaven, to millions of every clime.

Government of the United States. Zachary Taylor, of La., President till March 3, 1852. Millard Fillmore, of N. Y., Vice President. John M. Clayton, of Del., Sec. of State. William M. Meredith, of Penn. Sec. of the Treasury. George W. Crawford, of Geo., Sec. of War. William W. Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, Sec. of the Home Department. General. Reverdy Johnson, of Md., Attorney General. Composed of two members from each State. The number of Senators of the United States is President of the Senate. The number of representatives from each state, in the ratio of one representative to every 30,000 inhabitants. The present number of members is two hundred and thirty-one.

PSES IN THE YEAR 1850.

1. Tuesday, February 12. Sun eclipsed at the time of New Moon in the morning, invisible in the United States.

2. Wednesday, August 7. Sun eclipsed at the time of New Moon in the afternoon, visible in the South-western part of the United States, and the Western territories.

Chronological Cycles. Dominical Letter, F. Golden Number or Lunar Cycle, 8; Epact, 17; Solar Cycle, 11; Roman Indiction, 8; Julian Period, 6563; Jewish Year, 5611.

Morning and Evening Stars. VENUS will be Morning Star until March 2, then Evening Star until December 16, then Morning Star until September 30, 1851. JUPITER will be Morning Star until March 8, then Evening Star until Sept. 26, then Morning Star until April 8, 1851.

Note to the Reader.—The Calendar pages in this Almanac are adapted for use in every part of the United States. It is based on the fact, that, in the same latitude, that is, on a line running due east and west, the sun and moon rise and set at the same moment by the clock or almanac, not only throughout the United States, but around the world—the variations being so small as to be of no importance for ordinary purposes. The changes, fulls and quarters of the Moon are governed by another principle, and are essentially the same for all places on the same longitude, that is, on any line extending due north and south.

The Associations bordering upon different states, are inserted under the name of the state containing a majority of the churches or members.

MINUTES OF ASSOCIATIONS.—1. The statistical columns should always be added up, or the result given in a summary. 2. The names of ordained ministers should be printed in small capitals, and the names of licentiates in italics. 3. A brief abstract of the church letters should always be printed. 4. The names of all ordained ministers, with their post-office address should be printed; with the post-office of the Clerk or Corresponding Secretary. 5. There should be a statement showing the number of teachers, scholars and library books in each Sunday School. 6. In the Southern States it would be a matter of general intelligence, to give the number of white and colored members in separate columns, as now done by several Associations in Virginia and Georgia.

Baptism of Baptist W. Noel.—The Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel, a distinguished Episcopalian, and Chaplain of the Queen, was baptized in London, Aug. 9, 1849, in the presence of an immense congregation. On Lord's day morning, Aug. 5, he preached an admirable sermon on baptism, at John Street Chapel, (Rev. J. H. Evans'.) Before his baptism, on Thursday evening, the latter part of the 8th chapter of Acts was read, beginning at the 25th verse. Mr. Noel entered the pulpit, and said:

"Having been asked, my brethren, to address a few words to you on this occasion, I gladly avail myself of the opportunity of speaking a few words on this particular point—Why a person who is unbaptized should be baptized, after having made a profession of faith in Jesus Christ in other ways, and perhaps for many years. I believe I have weighed well every considerable argument that has ever been adduced in the maintenance of infant baptism as an addition to, and which evidently becomes a substitution for, the baptism of believers in Christian churches; and I have come distinctly to these two conclusions, which appear to me, at least, to be certain. It appears to me to be distinctly proved, first, that baptism, as ordained by Christ, is an immersion in water—a being buried in the water; and secondly, that immersion is meant to be a profession of faith in Christ. If those two conclusions are correct—and I believe they will completely prevail with the Christian world eventually—then it follows that a person, who, like myself, has only been sprinkled in infancy, is unbaptized, because such a person has neither been immersed, nor has he made a baptismal profession of faith: and these two things constitute Christian baptism. So that if these conclusions are correct, then I, and others, who have been sprinkled in baptism, are in neither sense baptized."

After further remarks by the candidate, a hymn was sung, and prayer offered. Mr. Noel, and sixteen others, were then baptized.

In the "Metropolitan Pulpit," published in London, in 1839, there is a full description of this eminent minister. It states that Mr. Noel's father "was a baronet, and his mother a peeress in her own right; which accounts for his possessing the title of 'honorable.' Lord Farnham, his brother, and Lady Farnham, his sister-in-law, form part of the household of the Queen." The same writer adds, "I am sure I shall be borne out by all who know anything of the state of religious matters in London, when I say, that he has done more good than any other man of his years."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, NEW YORK.

This Church originated in 1745. In 1747 the Scotch Plains Church, N. J., was organized, and as there were but 13 brethren and sisters in the city, who agreed in their views of doctrine, it was deemed advisable to unite with that Church in 1753, with the understanding that the pastor, Rev. Benj. Miller, should preach in New York occasionally. His preaching was so acceptable that those who wished to hear him could not be accommodated in a private dwelling. A rigging loft in Cart and Horse street, now William street, was hired by the Church. As their numbers increased, they purchased ground in Gold street, and erected a small meeting-house, which was opened March 14, 1760. In 1762, June 19, twenty-seven members of the Scotch Plains Church, having previously received letters of dismission, were recognized as an independent Church. Rev. John Gano entered upon the pastoral charge, and in a few years there were more than 200 members, and the meeting-house was enlarged. The Church continued to prosper till the members were scattered by the war of the Revolution. At the close of the war 37 members were collected. The meeting-house was repaired, having been used as a store-house and stable. In two years the Church again numbered more than 200 members. In 1788, Rev. Mr. Gano removed to Kentucky, having been for 26 years the faithful pastor of this church. Rev. Benj. Foster, D.D., was the successor of Gano, and labored ten years, when he was suddenly cut off by yellow fever, Aug. 26, 1798. In Oct., 1800, Rev. William Collier, of Boston, commenced his pastoral labors. The old house was removed in March, 1801, and a stone edifice, 80 feet by 65, erected at a cost of $25,000, and opened for public worship, May 2, 1802. Rev. J. Chaplin was pastor for a short time. In April, 1805, Rev. Wm. Parkinson, of Md., accepted the pastoral charge. His labors were much blessed, and in 1809 the Church numbered 564 members. He resigned the office, Aug. 11, 1840, having held it for 35 years. Rev. Spencer H. Cone, D.D., became the pastor July 1, 1841, having preached in the Oliver Street Church for 18 years. Among the conditions upon which the present pastor accepted the call, were these: "that the Church should erect such a building on their Broome street lots, as would accommodate our Bible and Missionary Societies, at a merely nominal rent; besides suitable accommodations for the Church and congregation."

The building, (see page 1,) was opened for public worship Feb. 20, 1842. The entire edifice measures 75 feet wide, by 110 on the east side, 87 on Broome street, and 90 on Elizabeth street. The auditory is 75 feet square; the remainder of the building, fronting on Broome street, is occupied by the American and Foreign Bible Society, and the American Baptist Home Mission Society, at an annual rent of one dollar each per annum. The whole cost of lots and house, interest, &c., was $75,000.

The number of members reported May, 1849, was 600.

Disciples, Reformers or Campbellites.—Rev. Alexander Hall, of Loydsville, O., has taken much pains to obtain the returns published in "The Christian Register." He reports 848 preachers, 902 meeting-houses, 1898 churches or congregations, and 118,618 communicants. The members are found in the following States:—

EVANGELIZATION OF OUR COUNTRY.—By MRS. G. W. ANDERSON.

The following Hymn was written for "The Baptist Harp," recently published by the Society.

Our country's voice is pleading,
Ye men of God, arise!
His providence is leading,
The land before you lies;
The land before you lies;
Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,
And promise clothes the soil,
Wide fields for harvest whitening,
Invite the reaper's toil.
Go where the waves are breaking,
On California's shore,
Christ's precious gospel taking,
More rich than golden ore;
On Alleghany's mountains,
Through all the Western vale
Beside Missouri's fountains,
Rehearse the wondrous tale.

Where prairie flowers are blooming,
Plant Sharon's fairer rose;
The farthest wilds illuming,
With light that ever glows;
To each lone forest-ranger,
The Word of Life unseal;
To every exile stranger,
Its saving truths reveal.
The love of Christ unfolding,
Speed on from east to west,
Till all, his Cross beholding,
In him are fully blest.
Great author of salvation,
Haste, haste the glorious day
When we, a ransomed nation,
Thy sceptre shall obey.
